

RESTORATION.

TRADE WITH THE SOUTH.

All Restrictions Removed after Sept. 1.

NO MORE CONTRABAND OF WAR.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

The following proclamation was issued this afternoon:

By the President of the United States of America.

Whereas, by Proclamations of the thirteenth and twenty-fourth of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, removing restrictions in part upon internal, domestic and coastwise intercourse and trade with the States recently declared in insurrection, certain articles were exempted from the effect of said proclamations for restricting trade in said articles has now in a great measure ceased, it is hereby ordered that on and after the first day of September, 1865, all restrictions aforesaid be removed; so that the articles declared by the said proclamation contraband of war may be imported into and used in said States, subject only to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe.

In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand, and caused the Seal of the United States to be affixed, at the City of Washington, this 29th day of August, 1865.

A. LINCOLN, President.

By the President, WILLIAM H. SEWARD, Secretary of State.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

EXTRA BILLY SMITH.

The notorious Extra Billy Smith is living quietly on his farm near Warrenton, Va.

A COURT IN WARRENTON, VA.

The first civil Court held in Warrenton, Va., since the beginning of the war met yesterday and was largely attended.

THE INDIAN COMMISSION.

A telegram has been received from the Commissioner of Indian Affairs, who is at the head of the Commission appointed to meet delegates from the Indian tribes of the South-West for the purpose of receiving a settlement of the difficulties now pending, announcing the safe arrival of the party at Fort Gibson on the 28th inst.

PERSONAL.

Albert Pike, the Arkansas poet, has applied to the President for pardon, with an elaborate and spirited statement. His petition comes from Ottawa, Canada, and is signed by 200 names of the musical fraternity. He desires having anything to do with inducing the trans-Mississippi Indians to take up arms against the United States.

C. F. Parsons, ex, the efficient Treasurer of the Internal Revenue Bureau, returned this morning after an absence of several weeks, and will resume the duties of his office immediately. Judge Linton Stevens of Augusta Ga., leaves for the East to-morrow, having received permission to visit his brother, Alexander H., at Fort Warren. Judge O. A. Lochrane of Georgia, whose recent speech was generally received with honorable comment, leaves for New-York to-morrow, where he will probably address your citizens on the condition of affairs in the South, and especially on the advantages offered by his State to the industrial classes of the North.

VIRGINIA POLITICS.

The Hon. A. W. H. Stuart of Stanton, Va., was yesterday nominated for Congress by a large meeting of the citizens. George E. Sennay, esq., of Winchester, has also been nominated for the same position. Mr. S. was some years ago editor of The Winchester Freeman, the Whig organ of the lower valley. In the late effort at Secession he adhered to the Union side.

OHIO POLITICS.

Postmaster-General Dennison having withdrawn his name as candidate for the Ohio Senatorship from March 4, 1867, and Mr. Benjamin Eggleston of Cincinnati no longer being a candidate, the contest lies between Messrs. John Sherman and Robert C. Schenck. The Legislature that elects is to be chosen on the second Tuesday of October.

APPOINTED.

Thomas Harland of Connecticut has been appointed Chief Clerk of the Patent Office, and George C. Schaeffer of Washington, Librarian.

JEFFERSON DAVIS.

Speculations as to his Trial—He is indicted at Knoxville—Will Probably be Tried at Norfolk, and by Judge Chase.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

The trial of Jefferson Davis will take place before a United States Circuit Court, but the particular one has not yet been designated. There seems to be no importance attached to the fact that the grand jury of the District of Columbia some months ago found a true bill against him for constructive treason in sending his troops to operate against Washington in the summer of 1864. The Grand Jury of the Court at Knoxville has indicted him for treason, for there Davis harangued the people against the United States Government.

The trial, however, cannot now take place in that form, or at any other place in the Tenth Judicial District, for the reason that the vacancy occasioned by the death of Associate-Justice Catron has not yet been filled.

As military operations against the United States were directed by orders given from Richmond, it is probable that the trial will take place in Virginia, at Norfolk, in which event Chief-Justice Chase will preside, as that State is embraced in the Judicial Circuit assigned to him.

TENNESSEE.

The Attack on the Rebel Gen. Wheeler—The Assaults Reprimanded—Speaker of the House Invited to Resign—Failure of the Cotton Crop—Completion of a Railway.

NASHVILLE, Monday, Aug. 28, 1865.

Gen. Thomas issued an order condemning Col. Blackburn's attack upon Gen. Wheeler as unjustified and unbecoming an officer of the United States Army, and that if he had not already been mustered out of the army he would have tried him by court-martial.

Mr. Hinkley, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, has been invited to resign, by a meeting of the citizens of Knoxville, on account of his opposition to the franchise bill.

The cotton crop will be almost an entire failure throughout West Tennessee. The rust is destroying it as fast as it matures. The yield in the western part of the State, where cotton grows the best, will not be over 200 pounds to the acre.

The railroad is completed from Memphis to Corinth.

New-Jersey Democratic State Convention.

TRENTON, N. J., Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

The Democratic State Convention, for the nomination of a candidate for Governor, will assemble to-morrow. A large number of delegates have arrived. Gen. Mott and Funtun, and Messrs. Randolph and Perry, are the leading candidates.

A child of Jackson Bunyca of Jordan, N. Y., was playing about a fire the open air last Tuesday, when his clothing ignited, and he was so burned that death ensued his sufferings in less than 24 hours.

THE FIELD.

Base Ball.

ATLANTIC VS. NATIONALS.

Special Dispatch to the N. Y. Tribune.

WASHINGTON, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

The base ball tournament was continued today in rear of the Presidential Mansion, between the Atlantic Club of Brooklyn and the National of Washington, and resulted in a victory for the Atlantics over handsome fielding and splendid batting. The number of spectators in attendance was very large. The National line had been arranged differently from yesterday, and by its judicious change their play was much improved. On both sides the game was conspicuous for its splendid fielding. Pearce caught for a few innings only, and then went to short stop. He took care of everything within his reach, and fielded in magnificent style. His play was admired by everybody. Charly Smith caught and did well.

Joe. Start, Crane, Calvin Chapman and Sidney Smith, all played well, making their play by superior skill and fly-catches. O'Brien never fielded better than in this game. He took every ball that came to him and made some excellent fly-catches. Start got in two home runs, and Pearce and Crane one each. Sidney Smith fielded well and made a good fly-catch. Pratt pitched finely, his delivery being very effective. The Nationals, one and all, did well. German never missed a chance at center-field, and his playing was rapturously applauded.

Williams, as a pitcher, is very swift, but he loses speed after a few innings. Walden and Prouty led the score, both securing home runs. Burthorpe was lively as short field, and Hodges at first base was immense. Yeoman is a splendid fielder, and his throwing was accurate. This match is considered the best fielded game of the year on both sides, and the Nationals have cause to feel proud of the result.

They played with more spirit to-day, as their defeat by the Atlantics of Philadelphia, yesterday, furnished them with the requisite incentive. The following is the score:

ATLANTICS.	O. R.	NATIONALS.	O. R.
Pearce.....	3	Parker.....	3
C. G. Smith.....	4	German.....	3
Start.....	4	Prouty.....	3
Crane.....	4	Burthorpe.....	4
Chapman.....	3	Williams.....	4
Crane.....	2	Hodges.....	3
Pratt.....	4	Jones.....	3
Sid. Smith.....	4	Yeoman.....	2
O'Brien.....	3	Walden.....	3
P. O'Brien.....	3	Walden.....	3
Total.....	27	Total.....	27

Home Runs—Atlantics, 4; National, 2.

Fly-catches—Atlantic, 12; National, 13.

Umpire—T. S. Daken.

Scores—D. A. Sutton, R. A. Cronin.

Time—2 hours, 50 minutes.

The Atlantics were handsomely entertained by the members of the National, with a dinner at the National Hotel this evening. In order to adjust an old dispute, the members of the Atlantic to-day forwarded a challenge to the Atlantics, Philadelphia, for a match game to-morrow on the President's grounds, and an answer is expected to-night.

LATER.

A dispatch was received here late to-night by the Atlantic Club from the Atlantics, now in Philadelphia, in answer to challenge sent to-day. They reply: "Will play with the Atlantics in Washington, next October." Another telegram says the Atlantics have beaten the Pastimes in Philadelphia by 12 scores. The Atlantics are still ahead.

ATHLETIC VS. PASTIMES.

BALTIMORE, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

The base-ball match to-day between the Atlantics of Philadelphia, and Pastimes of Baltimore, resulted in a victory for the Philadelphia club. After a spirited and well-contested game on both sides, the score stood Atlantics, 29; Pastimes, 27. There were fully 5,000 spectators, and the playing on both sides was pronounced very fine.

(By Telegraph.)

International Cricket Match.

TORONTO, Tuesday, August 29, 1865.

The International Cricket Match was concluded to-day. The contest was very close, the Americans barely winning as their last man was in. The score stood as follows: First Innings—Canada, 73; the Americans, 61. Second Innings—Canada, 54; the Americans, 61. The Americans played throughout with one man short.

ATHLETIC SPORTS—A Novel Entertainment at Brooklyn Capitoline Hall Grounds.

A great performance of athletic feats came off yesterday afternoon on the Capitoline hall grounds, Brooklyn, the entertainment being the accomplishment of nine different feats in the way of agility and strength. The performer is of recent introduction in this country, and his achievement of yesterday was a complete success, as well as being quite a novel and healthful recreation in the way of gymnastics and outdoor sports. The performance comprised the following feats, which the athlete, J. Sheffield, accomplished with ease and celerity:

Walk half mile.....	4:31
Trundle wheel half mile.....	3:50
Walk backwards half mile.....	7:30
Run half mile.....	3:00
Prick 30 spikes, one yard apart, and bring each one singly back.....	3:00
Hop 50 yards.....	0:15
Leap 10 hurdles.....	1:30
Put up 10 eggs with his mouth, and bring each back singly.....	2:15
Throw 30 ball hundred weights.....	4:21
Total.....	29:02

Eight seconds to spare.

Termination of a Suit Under the Excise Act—State and National Laws.

BOSTON, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

In the case of the Commonwealth versus Holbrook, which was carried up to the Supreme Judicial Court on the ground that the defendant had the right to sell intoxicating liquors under a license from the United States, the Court decided that the payment to the United States of a fee for license, and a revenue duty or tax, does not exempt the defendant from responsibility for violating the criminal laws of the Commonwealth.

THE TENNESSEE "ACCIDENT."

Thirteen more Bodies Recovered—Forty in All—Twenty Negro Soldiers Drowned.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Tuesday August 29, 1865.

Thirteen bodies, five of them whites, have been recovered from the wrecked cars in Richland Creek, near Reynolds Station.

One of the cars is underneath the others, in the bed of the stream and has not yet been reached. It is said that it contained over twenty negro soldiers, who have of course all perished.

FROM NEW-ORLEANS.

Commercial Intelligence—Movements of Steamers—Arrival of Specie—Arrest of Judge Jones.

NEW-ORLEANS, Monday, August 28, 1865.

The steamers Fung Shuey and Meteor have arrived from New York.

Cotton is quiet; sales to-day, 1,300 bales at 42 1/2 cts. for Middling.

Sugar and Molasses quiet.

Freights to New York, 2 cts. 1/2 per ton on Cotton.

Checks on New York, 1 1/2 per cent discount.

NEW-ORLEANS, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

The steamship Mariposa has arrived from New York.

Nearly a million specie has arrived here within the last few days.

The Hon. W. J. Jones, Judge of the United States Court of Alabama at the time of the Secession of that State, and continued in the same position by the succeeding regime, has been arrested at Montgomery and landed in $20,000 to await trial.

Death of Gov. Brough.

CLEVELAND, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

Gov. Brough died at 1 o'clock this afternoon.

The funeral service of Gov. Brough will take place at his residence in Cleveland on Friday, Sept. 1, at 11 o'clock a. m.

FROM TEXAS.

Trouble on the Frontier—The Telegraph—Condition of the Freedmen Satisfaction—Ravages of the Worm—Union Meeting.

NEW-ORLEANS, Tuesday, Aug. 29, 1865.

Texas advices report the frontier in a worse condition than ever before. The Austin and San Antonio papers are filled with accounts of outrages by Indians and highway robbers. Steps have, however, been taken by the military to afford protection to the frontier settlers.

The telegraph is being extended from Houston to San Antonio, Shreveport and Vicksburg.

The condition of the blacks, with a few exceptions, is represented to be satisfactory.

The worm continues its ravages on the cotton in the lower counties of Texas.

At a public meeting of the citizens of six counties, resolutions were passed, accepting the situation and pledging support to the National Government and Gov. Hamilton, acknowledging the abolishment of Slavery and asking Gov. Hamilton to call a convention.

Theaters.

The engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kean, at the Broadway Theater, commenced, on Monday evening, with every augury of brilliant success. The audience was large, yet select, and the performance of Henry VIII. and "The Jealous Wife" were greeted with intelligent and cordial applause. Louis XI. was represented last night, and will be repeated again on Friday. As Cardinal Wolsey and as Louis XI. Mr. Kean proves his right to the much abused name of artist. His personation of the former character is somewhat marred by those faults of nasal enunciation and over-rapid utterance which are the chronic defects of his acting. His personation of the latter character, however, is without a flaw. The part of Louis XI. fits him so exactly and so admirably that those peculiarities in his elocution, which would otherwise be blemishes, herein become positive merits. We do not recall a more truthful embodiment of character. The cruel, crafty, superstitious, cowardly, pious yet wicked monarch lives again, in Mr. Kean's portrayal, as life-like as in the graphic pages of history. Not to see Mr. Kean in this part is to lose the opportunity of seeing him at his best, and forming a truthful estimate of his talents. To-night he is to play Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice"—Mrs. Kean appearing as Portia. We were misled, by a doubtfully worded advertisement, in announcing a Matinee performance at this theater on Thursday. "Hamlet" will be performed on the evening of that day, and again at the Matinee performance of Saturday—the only Matinee of the week.

Barnum's Museum is enlivened this week by the pantomime of "Jocko, or the Brazilian Ape"—one of the funniest works of the kind which the modern stage is acquainted.

Signor Blitz, jr., gives a Matinee performance, at his hall, to-day, and another on Saturday. His programme of entertainment is continually varied, and his ventriloquism, canary birds, and magical feats, are alike perplexing and agreeable. Those, if any, who can fathom the wifeliness of Signor Blitz, jr., will presently have the opportunity of frowning a yet more impossible Sphinx of mystery, when Hermann comes to the Academy of Music. He commences operations there a week from Monday.

"Arrah-na-Pogue" will be done at Niblo's to-night for the sixtieth time.

Mowing himself could not create more or more hearty mirth than that which is nightly evinced at Irving Hall, in token of popular appreciation of the humor of Artemus Ward. Mr. Browne's lectures abound with telling anecdotes and that characteristically funny phraseology which sparkles through his writings. The discourse—whose lovers are the Mormons—is illustrated with panoramic pictures, several of which are meritorious in an artistic point of view, and all of which are sufficiently appropriate. Irving Hall is rather too large for Mr. Browne's voice, which is peculiarly a quiet one; but it would seem that the blessed contagion of laughter spreads from those who hear him to those who do not, so that the desired result is generally attained, everybody being made happy in the presence of the great showman.

Musical.

MISS ZELDA HARRISON'S CONCERT.—Miss Zelza Harrison made her debut some months since at a public concert, on which occasion she exhibited considerable promise, and displayed a voice of much natural beauty. Within the past few months she has had the advantage of singing with Madame Bishop, at the concerts of that distinguished artist, and has gained high and deserved credit.

Inspired by her success she has essayed two concerts on her own account, one at Bodsworth's Hall, and the other last evening at the Athenaeum, Brooklyn. The first was crowded to overflowing, and the second was brilliantly attended. The programme on each occasion was identical.

Miss Zelza Harrison has a rich and sympathetic voice, a mezzo-soprano rather than a contralto, but with full and telling notes in the lower register. Her style is not fully formed. She has much to learn and a large experience to achieve before she can take her rank comfortably among artists, but she exhibits large possibilities of future excellence, which we hope yet to see fulfilled. In Abt's song, "O ye tears," her voice told finely, and she sang it with much expression and natural pathos. In the duet from "Martha," and in the Komzina from "Anna Bolena," she was heard to great advantage. It is needless to say that she was encored in everything, and received throughout each evening the most enthusiastic demonstrations of approbation and delight. Miss Harrison has a flattering career before her, but, charming as she is now, it can only be won by close, earnest and critical study. To achieve this is worth the trial, her road is best with immoderate flatters, let her go these behind her, believe only in a future to be won by hard work and close self-criticism, and she will make a mark in the profession she has chosen.

Madame Anna Bishop is one of the most remarkable women of the day. She appears before the New York public again, with a voice as fresh and beautiful as when we first heard her in this city a great many years ago. Indeed, we think that in point of volume and purity, it is now better than it was then. Madame Bishop's style is thoroughly admirable; her school is pure, being free from that nauseating frolic, which disfigures the manner of too many of our modern singers, and there is nothing in the elaboration of ornament which is beyond her reach. Equally excellent is she in Italian or English, but in the interpretation of simple English, Scotch or Irish ballads, she certainly has no rival on the continent of America. At each concert Madame Bishop was received with enthusiasm, and whether in the elaborate Cavatina "Casta Diva," or the sweetly simple ballad by Stephen Masset, "Sunset," she gained vociferous encore, and won the respect and admiration not only of the public but the profession. It seems the general desire that Madame Bishop should give at least one concert at Irving Hall previous to her departure for California, and we join in the desire so expressed.

Mr. David M. Levett, a young American pianist, pupil of the Leipzig Conservatory, appeared at the Brooklyn Concert, and played Chopin's Impromptu in C sharp minor, upon a somewhat hard and ungrateful piano, in a most graceful and acceptable manner. He plays with taste and expression, and is altogether full of promise. With close and rigid study, and the experience which every day will bring to him, he can reach a high place among our solo artists.

Mr. Lascolles is a man of varied abilities; he plays the piano dashing, he accompanies with the taste and skill of a thorough artist, and he sings in a couple of three voices most pleasingly and effectively. He is a concert in himself, but as an assistant he is invaluable. He is a good musician, and a trustworthy and talented artist.

Miss Zelza Harrison's Concerts were a marked success, both artistically and financially.

The Rev. Mr. Connor is to be the new Roman Catholic Bishop of Albany, and the consecration is announced as likely to take place very soon.

Annual Pic-Nic of the Plumbers' Society.

The Second Annual Pic-Nic of the Journeymen Plumbers' Protective Society took place yesterday.

Two vessels, the steamer Chlorope and barge Wm. Roberts, were chartered to convey the party to Dudley's Grove where it was held. They left their last landing at Thirtieth-st. River, about 10 o'clock with a party of 1,000 persons on board.

A fine view of the scenery along the river, through the action of the attentive officer of the steamer Chlorope, who kept both the vessels close to the shore; and to make it still more agreeable, the singing band were engaged and discoursed sweet music on the trip. On the upper and lower deck of the barge several couples enjoyed themselves in tripping on the light fan-boats, which also gave further attractiveness to the affair.

The condition of the blacks, with a few exceptions, is represented to be satisfactory.

The worm continues its ravages on the cotton in the lower counties of Texas.

At a public meeting of the citizens of six counties, resolutions were passed, accepting the situation and pledging support to the National Government and Gov. Hamilton, acknowledging the abolishment of Slavery and asking Gov. Hamilton to call a convention.

Theaters.

The engagement of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kean, at the Broadway Theater, commenced, on Monday evening, with every augury of brilliant success. The audience was large, yet select, and the performance of Henry VIII. and "The Jealous Wife" were greeted with intelligent and cordial applause. Louis XI. was represented last night, and will be repeated again on Friday. As Cardinal Wolsey and as Louis XI. Mr. Kean proves his right to the much abused name of artist. His personation of the former character is somewhat marred by those faults of nasal enunciation and over-rapid utterance which are the chronic defects of his acting. His personation of the latter character, however, is without a flaw. The part of Louis XI. fits him so exactly and so admirably that those peculiarities in his elocution, which would otherwise be blemishes, herein become positive merits. We do not recall a more truthful embodiment of character. The cruel, crafty, superstitious, cowardly, pious yet wicked monarch lives again, in Mr. Kean's portrayal, as life-like as in the graphic pages of history. Not to see Mr. Kean in this part is to lose the opportunity of seeing him at his best, and forming a truthful estimate of his talents. To-night he is to play Shylock in "The Merchant of Venice"—Mrs. Kean appearing as Portia. We were misled, by a doubtfully worded advertisement, in announcing a Matinee performance at this theater on Thursday. "Hamlet" will be performed on the evening of that day, and again at the Matinee performance of Saturday—the only Matinee of the week.

Barnum's Museum is enlivened this week by the pantomime of "Jocko, or the Brazilian Ape"—one of the funniest works of the kind which the modern stage is acquainted.

Signor Blitz, jr., gives a Matinee performance, at his hall, to-day, and another on Saturday. His programme of entertainment is continually varied, and his ventriloquism, canary birds, and magical feats, are alike perplexing and agreeable. Those, if any, who can fathom the wifeliness of Signor Blitz, jr., will presently have the opportunity of frowning a yet more impossible Sphinx of mystery, when Hermann comes to the Academy of Music. He commences operations there a week from Monday.

"Arrah-na-Pogue" will be done at Niblo's to-night for the sixtieth time.

Mowing himself could not create more or more hearty mirth than that which is nightly evinced at Irving Hall, in token of popular appreciation of the humor of Artemus Ward. Mr. Browne's lectures abound with telling anecdotes and that characteristically funny phraseology which sparkles through his writings. The discourse—whose lovers are the Mormons—is illustrated with panoramic pictures, several of which are meritorious in an artistic point of view, and all of which are sufficiently appropriate. Irving Hall is rather too large for Mr. Browne's voice, which is peculiarly a quiet one; but it would seem that the blessed contagion of laughter spreads from those who hear him to those who do not, so that the desired result is generally attained, everybody being made happy in the presence of the great showman.

Musical.

MISS ZELDA HARRISON'S CONCERT.—Miss Zelza Harrison made her debut some months since at a public concert, on which occasion she exhibited considerable promise, and displayed a voice of much natural beauty. Within the past few months she has had the advantage of singing with Madame Bishop, at the concerts of that distinguished artist, and has gained high and deserved credit.

Inspired by her success she has essayed two concerts on her own account, one at Bodsworth's Hall, and the other last evening at the Athenaeum, Brooklyn. The first was crowded to overflowing, and the second was brilliantly attended. The programme on each occasion was identical.

Miss Zelza Harrison has a rich and sympathetic voice, a mezzo-soprano rather than a contralto, but with full and telling notes in the lower register. Her style is not fully formed. She has much to learn and a large experience to achieve before she can take her rank comfortably among artists, but she exhibits large possibilities of future excellence, which we hope yet to see fulfilled. In Abt's song, "O ye tears," her voice told finely, and she sang it with much expression and natural pathos. In the duet from "Martha," and in the Komzina from "Anna Bolena," she was heard to great advantage. It is needless to say that she was encored in everything, and received throughout each evening the most enthusiastic demonstrations of approbation and delight. Miss Harrison has a flattering career before her, but, charming as she is now, it can only be won by close, earnest and critical study. To achieve this is worth the trial, her road is best with immoderate flatters, let her go these behind her, believe only in a future to be won by hard work and close self-criticism, and she will make a mark in the profession she has chosen.

Madame Anna Bishop is one of the most remarkable women of the day. She appears before the New York public again, with a voice as fresh and beautiful as when we first heard her in this city a great many years ago. Indeed, we think that in point of volume and purity, it is now better than it was then. Madame Bishop's style is thoroughly admirable; her school is pure, being free from that nauseating frolic, which disfigures the manner of too many of our modern singers, and there is nothing in the elaboration of ornament which is beyond her reach. Equally excellent is she in Italian or English, but in the interpretation of simple English, Scotch or Irish ballads, she certainly has no rival on the continent of America. At each concert Madame Bishop was received with enthusiasm, and whether in the elaborate Cavatina "Casta Diva," or the sweetly simple ballad by Stephen Masset, "Sunset," she gained vociferous encore, and won the respect and admiration not only of the public but the profession. It seems the general desire that Madame Bishop should give at least one concert at Irving Hall previous to her departure for California, and we join in the desire so expressed.

Mr. David M. Levett, a young American pianist, pupil of the Leipzig Conservatory, appeared at the Brooklyn Concert, and played Chopin's Impromptu in C sharp minor, upon a somewhat hard and ungrateful piano, in a most graceful and acceptable manner. He plays with taste and expression, and is altogether full of promise. With close and rigid study, and the experience which every day will bring to him, he can reach a high place among our solo artists.

Mr. Lascolles is a man of varied abilities; he plays the piano dashing, he accompanies with the taste and skill of a thorough artist, and he sings in a couple of three voices most pleasingly and effectively. He is a concert in himself, but as an assistant he is invaluable. He is a good musician, and a trustworthy and talented artist.

Miss Zelza Harrison's Concerts were a marked success, both artistically and financially.

The Rev. Mr. Connor is to be the new Roman Catholic Bishop of Albany, and the consecration is announced as likely to take place very soon.

Hotel Personnel.

Gen. Robinson and A. D. C. Theodore P. Cook, U. S. Army, Dr. Hutchinson, U. S. Navy, Surgeon, C. A. Gough, U. S. Volunteers, the Hon. Francis W. Rice, U. S. Consul at Aspinwall, the Hon. E. M. Madden, Middlebury, are at the Astor House.

The Hon. Wm. Kelly, Rhinebeck, John C. Haines, Chicago, R. P. Spaulding, Ohio, and P. M. Hitchcock, Omaha Territory; and Gen. L. Donaldson, and D. S. Hunt, U. S. Army, are at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

George L. Carey, Oregon; the Hon. J. E. Bookbinder, St. Augustine, are at the Metropolitan Hotel.

The Hon. Wm. Hall and family, Covington, Ky., and Henry Etting, U. S. Navy, are at the Fifth Ave. Hotel.

Gen. Don Carlos Buell is at the New-York Hotel.

SUICIDE OF A VETERAN SOLDIER BY SHOOTING.

Last evening Patrick Booth, a returned soldier, committed suicide in his apartment at No. 210 East Seventeenth-st., by shooting himself through the head with a revolver. The cause is alleged to have been impotence and the fact of his having been defrauded of his bounty-money by a broker. He was taken to Bellevue Hospital, and died soon after being admitted.

Philadelphia Cattle Market—AUG. 30.

The supply of Beef Cattle this week was larger than for several months past, the offerings amounting to 2,450 head. Though the market was dull, but little change took place in prices, prime extra cattle being disposed of at from $8 to $14 1/2 per 100 lb; common and fair stock at from $12 to $14.

SHEEP.—The sheep market was quite active and the offerings large; the sales amounted to 7,500 head at prices ranging from 14 to 16 cts per lb gross for best quality. Stock Sheep sold at $4 1/2 to $4 3/4 cts, and Lambs at from $4 to $6, as to quality.

COWS.—There is a fair demand for Cows. The sales this week amounted to 150 head at from $30 to $55 for Springers and from $10 to $30 for Cows and Calf.

[Advertisement.]

[Advertisement.]